

Piano Men: Generations

Two Men. Two Pianos. One Extraordinary Band.

A night of piano-driven anthems that defined generations.
Familiar songs delivered with fresh energy and live spontaneity.
Music audiences know — performed in a way they don't expect.

Piano Men: Generations is a high-energy, two-piano concert experience that blends iconic music, live storytelling, and electrifying musicianship into one unforgettable night.

ABOUT THE SHOW

Piano Men: Generations isn't a tribute — it's a full-scale concert event. Led by a father-and-son duo and backed by a world-class band, the show delivers a powerful blend of piano-driven anthems, emotional moments, and high-impact performance. The connection on stage is real, the energy is contagious, and every night unfolds with live spontaneity. This is music audiences know — reimagined through chemistry, experience, and the unmistakable electricity of a live concert.

THE BAND

At the heart of the show are Terry and Nick — two performers connected by generations of music, instinct, and trust. Their on-stage dynamic is effortless and authentic, moving seamlessly between humor, storytelling, and explosive musical moments.

Terry brings decades of experience across orchestral performance and rock 'n' roll stages, grounding the show with depth, authority, and soul. Nick delivers fresh fire — powerhouse vocals, modern edge, and undeniable charisma — creating a sound that feels both timeless and current.

Behind them is one extraordinary band — elite musicians who elevate the performance from great to unforgettable. At the center is drummer Mike Richau, the visual and rhythmic engine of the show. With explosive energy, jaw-dropping stick work, and razor-sharp timing, he turns every performance into a spectacle that audiences feel as much as they hear.

THE EXPERIENCE

From the first chord to the final encore, Piano Men: Generations is a rollercoaster of energy, emotion, and connection.

The show balances massive piano anthems with intimate moments, delivering a concert that feels both grand and personal. It's designed for theaters and performing arts centers — scalable, polished, and built to leave audiences on their feet.

The result is more than a concert.

It's a shared experience that spans decades, brings generations together, and hits where it matters most.

In the soul.